NEW CONSTRUCTION OF THE REBELLION
TREASURY is continuing to put up an important part of the new Treaty by the United States authorities has escaped the constant consideration among our people, and few of us are even aware of the many difficulties it presents. It is not news that four made in Canada, either wholly or in part from American wheat, is not entitled to be admitted into the United States, or as Canadian under the Reciprocity Treaty or American produce; but is subject to a duty of fifteen per cent the same as foreign flour, and is taxed accordingly. It would naturally be thought that if produced, by undergoing the present manufactures, lost its original character, and became Canadian, it would be admitted. This is the view which has been adopted upon both sides, and it is natural to suppose that the former more liberal practice will be resumed by the American Government, when the attention of the former has been directed to the subject by the Board of Trade, and by parties whose interests are prejudiced, and effected by the change. —Montreal Advertiser.

"This morning," says the Buffalo Advertiser of Thursday, "John Zimmerman and Joseph Thuringer were arrested by Levi H. Williams, Esq., of the United States Commissioner, and upon a charge of being a United States soldier, for the service of His Majesty the Queen of Great Britain. The arrest, we understand, was part due to the arrival of the engineer of R. H. Best, Esq., chief of Police. An examination is to be held before Aurelian Conkling, Esq., Commissioner, just as we are going to press."

DIED.—At her residence, in Sillery, on Tuesday morning, May 4th, MRS. MCKEE, wife of Elijah Ketcheson, Esq.—Aged 88 years, 1 month and 8 days.

CHINA.

Matters at Canton seem to be progressing quietly. The Hong Kong correspondent of the London Times, under date of March 13th says:—

A reply has been received from Peking, in which the Peh-kiu, or French Consul, excuses the capture of Canton. Yeh has been degraded, and Tsang, Tung-han nominated Imperial Commissioner. Till the latter arrives Peh-kiu has been appointed to the charge of the foreign office, and he has been held in high position. As circumstances exist at present, it is a question whether Hwang will be allowed to assume authority in Canton.

Hwang was favorably known to our authorities during the first war, when he held high office in Peking, and he is believed to be a friend of the Chinese. I am told, in particular, that our Lieutenant-governor, Col. Cane, who distinguished himself in that expedition and in the administration of Chusan, gives Hwang a very high character.

Concerning the Emperor, it appears to be a plant of slow growth. There is no trade there yet except in provisions and "curiosities"; the latter, of course, for the amusement of the foreign ministers, who have been sent to be at Distrit. of the intentions of the Chinese officials, and of our power to protect, is the cause. In the last Government Gazette there is the translation of a fresh proclamation from Pekin, in which the Emperor is styled "the Grand Commissioner of the allied commissioners." He renaws his former assurances of the permanence of the present good understanding, and warns the people not to let the lies of "vagabonds" prevail.

The first step of delivering despatches to the Emperor has been taken by the Earl of Elgin and Baron Gros. The readiness of his authorities at Foo-Choo-Foo to receive and forward these communications is regarded as no small element for the success of the mission.

Lord Elgin, however, is by this time himself at Shanghai, and there will soon be an end to all speculation upon the fortune of the embassy. On his return he will take up his residence in the vice-consulate, and I hope that his Excellency, having varied all he had learned while here as to that assured trifling, will take instant steps to put an end to it. He will find that one example has led to another, and that he is entitled to the favor of his Chinese authorities.

An English merchant has been convicted before our Consul of the minor offence of breach of treaty in pronouncing emigration contrary to the laws of the Empire and has been fined $200. But the New York Herald says that he is a native of Shanghai, a slave-trading in fact.

An expedition into the country about Canton has been determined on, in order to look after the "braves" who are said to be in the neighborhood.

His Excellency Mr. Reed was at Manila by the time he would proceed from Shanghai to Canton.

At Foo-Choo-Foo a further advance in time had taken place, the rice since February being equal to 4 1/2 taels common and medium kinds and 6 taels on the best sorts.

Ai Shangtsu the settlements in tea had been trifling, but prices were firm.

THE DELEGATION OF YEH.

The following is the imperial edict which deposes Yeh from office:—

Mur-ki-tien, and Peh-kiu, in a joint memorial forwarded by express, represent that as the barbers have rusted their armor, and are not fit to be used.

Holding the office of Imperial Commissioner for the direction of the affairs of the barbarians Yeh Min-ching ought to have devised means to keep in check the said barbers, and that their voice is unanimously for war. We observe that stratagems, if their demands were indeed so unreasonable and extravagant, that they could not be remedied, and he is to be blamed.

But as the said barbers did twice addressed communications to the Commandant-in-Chief, and the Emperor, and the General of Canton, and the Minister of War, Yeh Ming-ching never once associated them with himself in council or in action; nay, many things were contained in the communications from (the barbarians) he kept secret, and would not let them be known. His Excellency Mr. Reed was at Manila by the time he would proceed from Shanghai to Canton.

THE EMPEROR OF CHINA'S VIEWS OF THE WILL OF CHINA.

Hong Kong (March 12) Correspondence of the London Times.

Since the time of your special correspondent for Canton, the fall of Canton has been published in that city, and also at Hong Kong. You will not fail to remark the improved tone of the authorities of Feh-kiu. Lin and Kaying of old were also superseded when they failed to prevent the fall of Canton, and the fall of the imperial cities; but they were punished for their failure, but nothing but the failure; whereas their successor Yeh is also chastised for having given good cause to the "rustics" of Feh-kiu, and for having concealed their efforts of Pekin their just grounds for complaint.

The satisfaction which this timely paper has produced here, is increased by the further announcement that Hwang is the new Viceroy. He was favorably known to our authorities, and when he was in the field he held high office in Peking, and he is believed to be still friendly to British interests and commerce. I am told, in particular, that our Lieutenant-Governor, Col. Cane, who distinguished himself in that expedition, and in the administration of Canton, has given a very high character indeed.

Until he assumes the reigns of government, our new nominee, Pekin, strange as it may seem, will be in command of the forces of the barbarians. You must not suppose that this is more than an accidental coincidence, however. When the Emperor's commission was trading the favor of Canton, and the Viceroy of Feh-kiu had fallen. The court of Feh-kiu, and other fates of the barbarians come later, and had not as yet been reported at the court.

ZIMMERMAN BANK.—We observe in the official Gazette, a notice issued by Mr. Dunkle, Cashier, to the effect that all Bills of the Zimmerman Bank, which had been issued by the deposit of Provincial Recruits, must be presented to the office of the Bank of Upper Canada, Toronto, on or before the 1st of September, in order to be honored. The terms of the Provincial guarantees, that the Bills will be redeemed, nevertheless, will not be honored.

The Zimmerman Bank, at any time, before or after that date, the Zimmerman Bank, it seems, is about to be closed.

IRELAND.

He gave his views at length, when a general debate ensued, involving the whole question of the Privileges.

Lord Palmerston, Mr. Disraeli, and others, opposed the motion of John Gardner, of the 10th of May, and following the action of the British plenipotentiary. Lord John Russell supported the motion, but it was rejected by 178 to 109.

Lord Russell announced that Sardinia cordially acquiesced in the suggestions of England in the Cagliari affair, and that harmony was consequently established between the two countries.

Italy. News asserts that if Lord Derby meets with further opposition, he will dissolve Parliament.

The Committee of the Cuirass of Kilward is punctuous out of bond. A large wholesale house in Elles Street, paid duty on 150 troops worth.

The Irish members of Parliament are about to wait as a deputation upon the Earl of Derby with a view of winning upon him the right and duty of doing what he can to assist the members of the union; and the Irish distinguished himself in that expedition and in the administration of Chusan, gives Hwang a very high character indeed.

Concerning the Emperor, it appears to be a plant of slow growth. There is no trade there yet except in provisions and "curiosities"; the latter, of course, for the amusement of the foreign ministers, who have been sent to be at Distrit. of the intentions of the Chinese officials, and of our power to protect, is the cause. In the last Government Gazette there is the translation of a fresh proclamation from Pekin, this period enabling an Irish-born person to acquire an industrial degree should be reduced from five to three years; that the area of residence should be increased, and that the union; and that the pensioners should be sent to his or her place of birth.

On Monday, the 26th, a young man, of fashionable appearance, was arrested at the Custom House, Dublin, with a forged name and Mr. Upton, of the Curzon of Seapoint-avenue, by snapping a loaded pistol at his breast, and with having shot a portion of the hand of Mr. W. E. Upton, of Damecourt. It appears that he was a foreigner, and he was a passenger in a steamer bound for America.

The Chamber des Minimes in Acreton at Dublin decided to send before the Constitutional, Police court of Chancery 85 cases of persons implicated in the recent disturbances that took place.

OPPOSITION TO RAILROADS.

THE RAILROAD DEMONSTRATION.

BELLEVILLE WILL TAKE

CLIP OF THE ANNIVERSARY OF QUEEN'S VISIT TO TOWN!!!

IT will be conducted on a magnificent scale, and will be open to every one of the City of Montreal, and thereby place the Capital of Lower Canada in the shade.

HER MAJESTY.

Is expected to arrive in Belleville by a Special Train from Quebec in fifteen hours. There will be under these circumstances, the VARIETY AND ABUNDANCE OF HARDWARE which will be required for the demonstration, and the number of carriages in consideration.

There is no time to be lost, and he, therefore, invites all the public to Good-bye constantly in attendance.

Trouton, August 5, 1857.

Varieties.

MISS CRINOLINE ARROD

is latticing down the sidewalk,
Fluttering 'cross the street,
Head and hands in motion,
The crinoline is bent,
Right up and ready,
Ere the left is down,
Bustle and bustle,
Coming through the town!

What a load of ribbons
For one head to wear!
What a load of ribbons
For one head to bear!

What a breath of sidewalk
For one head to breathe,
What a load of ribbons
For one head to bear!

How the little people
Scatter to one side!

There is grandeur Toddy,
Come and taste it, I say;
For oil man—pride lady—
Wonder how they'll meet!

Grandeur Toddy, I say;

Clings with vague surprise,

Madam can't see him,

Mindar's lost her eye!

Lookers on plenty,

It's a load of ribbons!

Silly people wonder

What she can be,

Madam's lost her eyes,

Looking very pale,

That is the comet,

That is the tail.

Farmer Dobbs conjectures

Winking both his eyes,

Tis a load of ribbons,

By the shape and size,

Tis a load of ribbons,

Parry's in a daze,

Judging by the color,

It's a load of ribbons!

Madam bears the scandal

With a wryfaced frown;

Brings her toy load here;

Up with a yawn;

With a yawn;

Dashes with a swell,

Wage have after "Black & Blue!"

Know it by the smell!

which is governed by Lower Canada; but it will not do. I was in the reporter's box at the time, and I have enough knowledge of the paper to know that the expression as given by the Globe is not what I wish it was, but that the words given by Mr. Loring were those which he repeated— and it is when we have obtained this equality that in regarding it as a superiority over the rest of the papers, we are in error, and the risk of losing what we have, and I understand that he considered the movement of the demand for the double majority was the cause of his action. This was the tenor of argument used by Mr. Loring in the part of his appeal to the Lower Canadian Legislature.

He set out his position in administering his affairs, now they had a majority, would get drawn over them and would be lost; but if they forgot moderation they would lose what they had, and be placed in a worse position. He also said that the Globe is the best reporter, but to say that the Globe is an honest reporter, when it suits him to be so, is the world known to be. The debate on this question will be resumed on Wednesday.

TRENTON AND BELLEVILLE.

G. & L. CRUCKSHANK.

ARE now running a DAILY STAGE

A between Trenton and Belleville, for the accommodation of travellers.

Leave the Hotel in Trenton, every morning

Milk is a luxury of a dozen years, who were very poor in the store, one day, and watched through the door that stood ajar to test his honesty. Finding himself alone he began to canvass the apartment for something good, and, upon finding it, he took it, and, in his innocence, it fell to milk and candy. Upon being caught in the act and reprimanded, he began to justify himself by saying:

'You'd no business to leave me alone

—you know I'd steal.'

Biddy bring me some salt.'

'Sure, an I will, your riverence.'

Forthwith appeared Biddy with the article in her hand. Said the master:

'Now again bring me anything in your hand. You should have brought it on a plate.'

The evening meal being over, the bell was again rung, and the faithful domestic had again come to the table.

'I want my supper.'

Biddy went, and returned, bearing in her hand a plate, upon which were the pieces' slips.

A certain old lady who had been famed for sour looks and not very sweet words touching the accidents of life, was observed to become very quiet.

A great change has come over you' I said a neighbor.

'Why,' said the transformed, 'to tell you the truth, I have been all my life striving for a contented life, and have finally determined to sit down without it.'
